Musical Prelude

Call to Worship Exodus 15:1–2, 11–13

Pastor: I will sing to the LORD, for he has triumphed gloriously;
the horse and his rider he has thrown into the sea.

Congregation: The LORD is my strength and my song,
and he has become my salvation;

Pastor: this is my God, and I will praise him,
my father's God, and I will exalt him. . . .

Congregation: Who is like you, O LORD, among the gods?

Pastor: Who is like you, majestic in holiness,
awesome in glorious deeds, doing wonders?

Congregation: You stretched out your right hand;
the earth swallowed them.

All: You have led in your steadfast love the people whom you have redeemed;
you have guided them by your strength to your holy abode.

Confession of Sin

Pastor: Father, your love draws us to confess our sins.

Your love is greater than our deep brokenness.

Congregation: We have wandered our own way,
declared ourselves in charge of our lives,
and made ourselves outcast from you and others.

Pastor: Your love is greater than our blindness to our brokenness.

Congregation: We minimize our sin,
acting like we're fractured but not broken,
like we can get by on our own strength.

Pastor: Your love is greater than our complacency in our brokenness.

Congregation: We sometimes treat the truth of brokenness like a get out of jail free card.

We don't push forward and fight.

We under-believe that you can transform us.

All: Cover over our sins, Father, in the depths of your love.

Assurance of Pardon 1 John 4:15-18

Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear.
