Welcome and Announcements: Rev. Brandon Edmonds

Musical Prelude

Call to Worship

Psalm 91:1-2,9-16

Pastor: He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will abide in the shadow of the Almighty.

Congregation: I will say to the Lord, "My refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust."

Pastor: Because you have made the Lord your dwelling place—

the Most High, who is my refuge—no evil shall be allowed to befall you, no plague come near your tent.

Congregation: For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways. On their hands they will bear you up, lest you strike your foot against a stone.

Pastor: You will tread on the lion and the adder;
the young lion and the serpent you will trample underfoot.

Congregation: “Because he holds fast to me in love, I will deliver him;
I will protect him, because he knows my name.

Pastor: When he calls to me, I will answer him;
I will be with him in trouble;
I will rescue him and honor him.

All: With long life I will satisfy him and show him my salvation.”

Song of Adoration: Red Book #53- Ancient of Days

Prayer of Invocation

Song of Praise: Red Book #54- Open the Eyes of My Heart

Song of Thanksgiving: He Is Our Peace

Profession of Faith: Heidelberg Catechism Q&A 57-58

Q. How does “the resurrection of the body” comfort you?

A. Not only will my soul be taken immediately after this life to Christ its head, but also my very flesh will be raised by the power of Christ, reunited with my soul, and made like Christ’s glorious body.

Q. How does the article concerning “life everlasting” comfort you?

A. Even as I already now experience in my heart the beginning of eternal joy, so after this life I will have perfect blessedness such as no eye has seen, no ear has heard, no human heart has ever imagined: a blessedness in which to praise God forever.

New Testament Reading: Romans 6:1-14

Confession of Sin: Psalm 85:1-7

Pastor: You showed favor to your land, O LORD; you restored the fortunes of Jacob.

Congregation: You forgave the iniquity of your people and covered all their sins.

Pastor: You set aside all your wrath and turned from your fierce anger.

Congregation: Restore us again, O God our Savior, and put away your displeasure toward us.

Pastor: Will you be angry with us forever? Will you prolong your anger through all generations?

Congregation: Will you not revive us again, that your people may rejoice in you?

All: Show us your unfailing love, O LORD, and grant us your salvation. In the name of Jesus, Amen!

Silent Confession

Assurance of Pardon: Romans 6:22-23

But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Prayer of Thanksgiving and Intercession: Pastor Ed Veldhuizen

The Collection of Tithes and Offerings

Song of Preparation: Hymn: Faith Is the Victory

Sermon text: Luke 8:40-42, 49-56

40 Now when Jesus returned, the crowd welcomed him, for they were all waiting for him. 41 And there came a man named Jairus, who was a ruler of the synagogue. And falling at Jesus' feet, he implored him to come to his house, 42 for he had an only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she was dying.

49 While he was still speaking, someone from the ruler's house came and said, "Your daughter is dead; do not trouble the Teacher any more." 50 But Jesus on hearing this answered him, "Do not fear; only believe, and she will be well."

51 And when he came to the house, he allowed no one to enter with him, except Peter and John and James, and the father and mother of the child. 52 And all were weeping and mourning for her, but he said, "Do not weep, for she is not dead but sleeping."

53 And they laughed at him, knowing that she was dead. 54 But taking her by the hand he called, saying, "Child, arise." 55 And her spirit returned, and she got up at once. And he directed that something should be given her to eat. 56 And her parents were amazed, but he charged them to tell no one what had happened.
